

Langeberg Mall, Louis Fourie Road, Voorbaai - RML06B

Site Description

Langeberg Mall is located in Mosselbay, close to Bayside and Hartenbos and forms part of a holiday destination with high visitor volumes. The average number of people visiting the centre on a monthly basis is around 370 000 shoppers. The Mall offers 1200 parking bays and major tenants include Pick & Pay, Edgars, Absa, Standard Bank, Mugg & Bean, Clicks, Woolworths, Foshcini, Game, Mr Price and many more. The maxi pavelite is positioned on the turning circle at the main entrance of the mall.

| Location                                                                             |                                             |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Name:                                                                                | Langeberg Mall, Louis Fourie Road, Voorbaai |
| Suburb:                                                                              | Voorbaai                                    |
| City:                                                                                | Mossel Bay                                  |
| Province:                                                                            | Western Cape                                |
| SEM:                                                                                 | 7 - 10                                      |
| Specifications                                                                       |                                             |
| Orientation:                                                                         | Portrait                                    |
| Dimensions:                                                                          | 2.5 x 1.2                                   |
| Contact Details                                                                      |                                             |
| Cell:                                                                                | 076 867 4995 / 063 633 6143                 |
| Email:                                                                               | sales@razrmedia.co.za                       |
|  |                                             |

